

VARCDC Policy
Travel reimbursement for award recipients
2007

Winners of the VARCDC awards will be invited to the Annual Spring Meeting of the Association to be presented the award. The Council who nominated the candidate will pay all travel costs for one person to attend the award presentation including travel, lodging, registration, meals and the award presentation. Because of the beneficial networking and training opportunities this should include the registration for the full meeting if the recipient is available to attend.

Winners of the Southeast Association of RC&D Awards that are nominated by VARCDC will be invited to the SEARC&DC Annual Meeting to be presented the award. The VARCDC will pay one half of the travel expenses for one person with the Council who nominated the candidate paying the other half of the travel which includes travel, lodging, meals, registration and the awards dinner or luncheon. Travel will be reimbursed at the most economic rate of car, rail or plane.

Winners of the National Association of RC&D Awards that are nominated by the VARCDC and SEARC&DC will be invited to a national meeting to be presented the award. This can be either the National Leadership meeting in Washington DC or the National Meeting of NARCDC. The VARCDC will pay the travel costs for one person to attend the meeting including travel, lodging, meals, registration and the awards luncheon or dinner. Travel will be at the most economic rate of car, rail or plane.
